

SCFLTA / The Year of Languages / SCFLTA

Fall Workshop 2004

A one-day workshop sponsored by
The South Carolina Foreign Language Teachers'
Association (SCFLTA)
with language specific immersion sessions in French, German, Latin and Spanish

---

“Celebrate! Educate! Communicate!” The Year of Languages in South Carolina!”

Celebrate! Educate! Communicate!

Start off the day with general sessions focused on these three “goal areas” for the “Year of Languages”. You’ll take away ideas on how to celebrate the “Year of Languages” in your school and district, information on effective ways to educate students, administrators, parents and legislators about the importance of foreign language programming in all grade levels and ways to encourage communication in and about foreign languages in your communities!

The Year of Languages in South Carolina!

Spend lunch and the afternoon in a language-specific immersion workshop with colleagues from around the state. You’ll get to practice the language you teach, gain valuable information you can use in your classrooms and find out more about the various language specific resources available to you and your students!

---

Saturday, October 2, 2004
8:30am – 3:30pm

Columbia Conference Center - Columbia, SC

(Visit <http://www.columbiameetings.com/directions.htm> for directions and map)

$35.00 early member registration (lunch included!)

$45.00 late / non-member registration

---

Registration forms are available in this mailing and on the SCFLTA website!
Contact your specific state language association for more information on the afternoon immersion workshops!!

<http://www.scflta.org>